

Sweet Briar College is a women's liberal arts institution, located in Central Virginia approximately 12 miles north of Lynchburg and 60 miles south of Charlottesville. Founded in 1901, the College's curriculum encompasses a comprehensive baccalaureate program in the arts, sciences and humanities, as well as graduate programs in education. It is one of two women's colleges in the United States offering an ABET-accredited engineering degree. As an Equal Opportunity Employer, Sweet Briar College is committed to enhancing our community and encourages applications from qualified individuals with varied backgrounds, experiences and ideas who would increase the diversity of the College.

Job Title: Assistant Professor of Education

Classification: Full-time, tenure track faculty position

Job Summary/Objective:

Sweet Briar College invites applications for a tenure track position in the Education Department at the Assistant Professor level in the area of curriculum, special education, and early childhood education. The candidate must be committed to teaching excellence in a liberal arts community while maintaining an active program of scholarly research. Teaching assignments are 3/3/1, and preference will go to candidates who are able to model differentiated curriculum and instruction. The faculty member is also responsible for supervising clinical and student teaching experiences and advising undergraduate students.

Sweet Briar's Education Department (<http://sbc.edu/education/>) prepares elementary and secondary licensure candidates to teach through integrated clinical and professional development courses in a five-year program leading to the Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT). The department also offers the Master of Education (M.Ed.) to licensed professionals. The focus of both degrees is differentiated curriculum, instruction, and assessment.

The salary for this position is competitive and commensurate with experience and qualifications for the rank of assistant professor. The starting date for this position is August 2017 for a 10-month period.

Required Qualifications:

A Ph.D. from an accredited institution and several years of K-12 teaching experience are required.

How to Apply:

Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation via email in a single PDF file to assisteducation@sbc.edu. Candidates should address their experience with CAEP standards and assessments in their letters of application. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
