Job Title: Visiting Assistant Professor of Economics

Classification: Full-time, non-tenure track, one-year faculty position

Job Summary/Objective:

Sweet Briar College invites applications for a Visiting Assistant Professor position in Economics. We seek candidates with experience beyond the Ph.D., including proven teaching at the undergraduate level and evidence of potential for scholarly publications consistent with an Assistant Professor appointment. Candidates should have research and teaching interests in either major field of economics: microeconomics (e.g., labor economics) or macroeconomics (e.g., international trade and finance). The normal teaching load is 3:3, including introductory and advance level courses.

Essential Responsibilities:

The successful candidate will be an engaged scholar-teacher who will be central in building the economics program for the future; will collaborate with colleagues across different disciplines and be open to contributing to a variety of majors and programs; will shape and participate in campus academic life; and will work closely with undergraduates on research and as a mentor in pursuing careers in public service, academe or the professions. Candidates ready to work with a diverse student body are especially welcome. Sweet Briar prides itself on creating a learning environment that encourages young women to fulfill their highest potential. Leadership in all walks of life is fostered by the special connections our faculty make with their students, and Sweet Briar women translate their academic experiences into interesting and important lives.

How to Apply:

Applications should be sent by email in a single PDF file to econsearch@sbc.edu. Applications should include: 1) a cover letter; 2) a CV; 3) the names and full contact information for 3 references; and 4) unofficial transcripts. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
