Room and Board (Homestay)*:
- Host family lodging: private room in a Francophone household including a bed, desk, proper storage and lighting. Household linens and laundry facilities are provided. Students receive keys to the apartment and have access to the common rooms in the home.
- Demi-pension: Breakfast daily and 6 dinners per week when classes are in session (During university breaks only room is included)

* Students opting for independent housing are refunded the room and board amount. Students will be responsible for securing their own housing in Paris. Room and board costs may be higher depending on students life style.

Health Insurance:
Comprehensive medical health and travel insurance which includes reimbursement for doctor’s visit, mental health services, physiotherapy and chiropractic care and accident, evacuation and repatriation as well as 24-hour support services for the semester or year.

Notes:
- Your home school financial aid is applicable and scholarships are available from the JYF in Paris program.
- It is the student’s responsibility to inquire with their home institution regarding payment arrangements and financial aid transfer for study abroad.
- Students receiving financial aid through their colleges MUST provide notification in writing from their financial office guaranteeing the allocation of their financial aid together with an indication of when these fees can be expected and from whom JYF may expect payment.
- Every effort is made to keep the cost of JYF as low as rising prices and foreign exchange rates permit.
