Job description

Purpose:
As a former JYF participant you have a unique perspective on and insights into the JYF in Paris program. Prospective study abroad students looking into programs truly want to hear about your stories, experiences and opinions to make their decision. You can be the voice of JYF to help us reach students at your institution for whom JYF could be a good study abroad fit, but who may not have heard about us otherwise.

A flexible and minimal commitment.
Let us know via this survey which of these options you want to help with:

Can JYF list you on our website as a contact for student questions about JYF at your college/university?

Commit to at least 1 of the activities below and receive a cool JYF T-shirt!

- Assist JYF at your college/university's study abroad fair
- Organize an event(s) on your campus to help promote the JYF program and share your experience with JYF with others such as information multimedia presentation, making crêpes, French movie night, etc.
- Write a blog post about your JYF experience for the JYF Blog
- Coordinate a presentation to a French class
- Create a video about your experience for your fellow students
- Be profiled on the JYF website to share reflections about your experience with JYF in Paris.
- Propose an activity!

What’s in it for YOU?
- Reflect on your experience in Paris while helping others plan theirs
- Share your stories, enthusiasm, and inspiration with other students
- Enhance your resume with leadership, communication and programming skills
- Reimbursement of cost of expenses to organize events
- Make new friends and have fun!
- Get a cool JYF T-shirt!

Contact us at jyf@sbc.edu.
We look forward to welcoming you back as a member of the program!